SENSATIONAL ACTION IS EXPECTED AGAINST BOARD OF ASSESSORS

Hoyne May Start Action for Failure to Get Sworn Schedules from 1,000 Taxpayers—Success of Prosecutor Would Mean Million in Fines.

From a reliable source it was learned today that State's Attorney Hoyne is considering taking action against the Cook county board of assessors for allowing unsworn tax schedules to be filed.

Under an old law the members of the board of assessors can be fined $1,000 for each time they accept a tax schedule that is not sworn to.

There are said to have been 1,000 unsworn tax schedules found so far through the investigation now being made by the state's attorney's office.

If Hoyne should start action and win this would mean fines aggregating $1,000,000.

The present members of the board of assessors are David Pfaelzer, Thos. J. Webb, W. K. Sheridan, Wm. H. Weber and Adam Wolf. Pfaelzer was highly peeved at the rumor when it was conveyed to him by a reporter for The Day Book.

He declared that the law to compel sworn statements was an old one that was never enforced. Despite Pfaelzer's assurance, there was an under-
